

Exam: Qualitative Interview

Multiple Choice (Single Select) - 4 Answer Options

1. What is a semi-structured (guideline) interview?

- A) Without questions
- B) Fully standardized
- C) Partially standardized with open questions
- D) Pure observation

2. What is a narrative interview (Schuetze)?

- A) Initial prompt only, then active listening
- B) Structured questionnaire
- C) Group interview
- D) Telephone interview

3. Which question type should be avoided in qualitative interviews?

- A) Steering questions
- B) Opening questions
- C) Suggestive questions
- D) Sustaining questions

4. What is the purpose of pretesting an interview guide?

- A) Drawing the sample
- B) Starting transcription
- C) Starting analysis
- D) Testing the guide with trial participants and revising it

5. Which transcription rules are standard in German-speaking countries?

- A) Mayring
- B) Glaser/Strauss
- C) Kuckartz
- D) Dresing/Pehl

6. What is a postscript in qualitative interviewing?

- A) An analysis method
- B) A transcription program
- C) A summary before the interview
- D) Notes taken immediately after the interview

7. What is the focus of expert interviews?

- A) Biography
- B) Process knowledge and interpretive knowledge
- C) Emotions
- D) Personal opinion

8. What does the funnel principle mean in interviewing?

- A) Only open questions
- B) Only narrow questions
- C) From broad to specific questions
- D) From specific to broad questions

Solutions

1: C

2: A

3: C

4: D

5: D

6: D

7: B

8: C