

Exam: Qualitative Methods: Overview

Multiple Choice (Single Select) - 4 Answer Options

1. What is the main goal of qualitative research?

- A) Counting and measuring
- B) Understanding meaning and reconstructing action orientations
- C) Generalizable statements
- D) Hypothesis testing

2. What does the principle of openness mean?

- A) All data are welcome
- B) The researcher is neutral
- C) No rigid hypotheses before data collection
- D) Results are open

3. What is an important quality criterion in qualitative research?

- A) R-squared
- B) Effect size
- C) Procedural documentation
- D) p-value

4. What does communicative validation mean?

- A) Statistics are checked
- B) The theory is confirmed
- C) The researcher validates alone
- D) Results are presented to the respondents

5. Which qualitative method aims at theory building?

- A) Survey
- B) Descriptive statistics
- C) Grounded Theory
- D) Experiment

6. What is triangulation?

- A) Combining multiple methods or perspectives
- B) Testing three hypotheses
- C) Using three researchers
- D) Dividing data into triangles

7. What distinguishes qualitative from quantitative research?

- A) Quantitative is simpler
- B) Qualitative is better
- C) Qualitative works inductively, quantitative deductively
- D) There is no difference

8. What is typical qualitative sampling?

- A) Census
- B) Purposive sampling
- C) Cluster sampling
- D) Random sampling

Solutions

1: B

2: C

3: C

4: D

5: C

6: A

7: C

8: B