

Exam: Discourse Analysis

Multiple Choice (Single Select) - 4 Answer Options

1. What is a discourse according to Foucault?

- A) A rule-governed practice of linguistic utterances
- B) A conversation
- C) A debate
- D) A speech

2. Which tradition examines power and ideology in language?

- A) Ethnography
- B) Grounded Theory
- C) Critical Discourse Analysis (Fairclough)
- D) Content Analysis

3. What is a corpus in discourse analysis?

- A) A theory
- B) An interview study
- C) A statistical dataset
- D) A systematic collection of texts

4. What are subject positions?

- A) The views of an interviewee, as they represent the research subject's position.
- B) Coding categories
- C) The researchers adopt the subject's positions as they examine the object of their research.
- D) Roles offered within a discourse

5. What is framing?

- A) Framing is an interview technique in which you set the context of the interview.
- B) How a topic is linguistically presented
- C) In coding, the term 'framing' is used to describe the creation of a nested function.
- D) A method of image composition.

6. Which method is suitable for large text corpora?

- A) Computer-assisted methods (topic modeling)
- B) Manual coding
- C) Narrative interview
- D) Experiment

7. What is a topos in discourse analysis?

- A) A standard argument
- B) A rhetorical figure
- C) A place
- D) A topic

8. Which quality criterion is especially important in discourse analysis?

- A) R-squared
- B) Reliability in the sense of test-retest
- C) p-value
- D) Transparency of corpus construction

Solutions

1: A

2: C

3: D

4: D

5: B

6: A

7: A

8: D